A Fatal Jump.

New York, January 11.—A fire broke out this morning in the tenement house 50 East Houston street. The house quickly filled with smoke and the occupants became panic-stricken. The firemen were promptly on the scene and put out the fire after it had caused damage amounting to $1000.

Before the firemen arrived Amelia Holz, 40 years old, jumped from a fourth-story window and was taken to a hospital fatally injured. Two of the other inmates were taken out in an unconscious condition.

A Correction.

Empire, January 11th 1894.
ED. APPEAL—I told you that Jim Reagan's wife presented her lord and master with a nice baby boy, but I see you have given Jim Wiggins credit for the good deed. I can make Wiggins ride behind a mad bull with impunity, but I could not break the heart of his dove-eyed darling who is patiently waiting for the ship that brings him home.

The Minstrel Event of the Season.

Lovers of unobjectionable amusement and all who enjoy a hearty laugh will have their fondest wishes gratified at the Opera House on Friday night January 19, when the Barlow Brothers' Mammoth Minstrels in an entire new programme, embracing all the salient points of minstrelsy. The wide spread reputation of this company and their long list of celebrated stars, together with their press indorsements from our best journals, are recommendations sufficient to satisfy the most exacting. We quote the following from the Philadelphia Daily Press.

Barlow Brothers' Minstrels is made up of the best talent in the country, is new all through, and has so many commendable points that to mention one seems like slighting the others that were equally as good, and are all deserving of praise. There was not a tame scene nor a tiresome incident in the whole performance. The singers' voices are rich and well trained, they are tastefully arranged, and the succeeding scenes are full of rapid and beautiful surprises, making the Barlow Brothers the event of the season.

Seats now on sale at Steinmetz's Drug Store.
